

CURRICULUM VITAE

Name: Mag. Dr. Phil. Wolfgang F.A. Lobisser

Personal data:

Date of birth: 08.10.1967
Place of Birth: Bad Ischl / Austria
Nationality: Austrian citizen

Education:

1978 – 1986 - Secondary education in Bad Ischl / Upper Austria, graduated on 14. October 1986

1986 – 1991 - Apprenticeship as a violin- and guitarmaker, graduated on 10. December 1991 in Vienna

1991 – 2002 - Study at University of Vienna: Pre- and Early History, History, Classical Archaeology, Ethnology, Anthropology and Palaeontology

14.11.2002 - Master conferred by the University of Vienna (graduated with mark of distinction)
Master thesis: „Die Bauhölzer der keltischen Siedlung im Ramsautal am Dürrnberg bei Hallein“

31.10.2017 - PhD conferred by the University of Vienna (graduated with mark of distinction)
Thesis: „Die Kleinfunde aus Holz aus der keltischen Siedlung im Ramsautal am Dürrnberg bei Hallein“

Foreign languages: English, French, Latin
Driving license: A, B

Archaeological excavations:

1991/1992/1993 residential and workshop areas from Iron Age to modern times, Hallstatt (Janu), Upper Austria

1992/1993 Celtic fortification, Schwarzenbach, Lower Austria

1992 Bronze Age copper smelting place, Mühlbach am Hochkönig, Salzburg

1994 Early Neolithic settlement and Early Medieval structures, rescue excavation (BDA) Poysdorf, Lower Austria

1995 Hallstatt period house findings, Leobersdorf, Lower Austria

1997/98 Bronze Age salt-mine Hallstatt, Upper Austria

1998-2020 Bronze Age and Celtic settlement, Schwarzenbach,
Lower Austria

1998 Bronze Age and Celtic settlement, Schwarzenbach, Lower Austria

2000 Bronze Age Block tub Hallstatt, Upper Austria

2011 Modern time devastation, St. Gilgen, Upper Austria

2020 Neolithic settlement, Kleinhadersdorf, Lower Austria

Experimental studies and archaeological research before 2002:

1994: Experimental studies and archaeological research: reconstruction of a part of the iron age rampart Schwarzenbach / Lower Austria

1995-1996: Experimental studies and archaeological research: reconstruction of an early neolithic fountain in the archaeological open-air park in Asparn / Lower Austria

1997-2001: Experimental studies and archaeological research: reconstruction of several roman imperial farm buildings in the archaeological open-air park in Elsarn / Lower Austria

2000 – 2002 associated member of the NHM – Naturhistorisches Museum Wien – for the EU-project ArchaeoLive; archaeological research and experimental studies concerning Bronze Age buildings

From May 2002 to 2020:

Associated member of the Vienna Institute for Archaeological Science (VIAS), University of Vienna; Archaeological reconstruction director in numerous projects for Experimental Archaeology:

2002 – 2007: Experimental studies and archaeological research: building a late celtic archaeological open-air museum in Schwarzenbach / Lower Austria

2003 – 2006: Experimental studies and archaeological research: building an early iron age archaeological open-air museum in Großklein / Styria

2004 – 2008: Experimental studies and archaeological research: building a middle neolithic archaeological open-air museum in Wetzdorf / Lower Austria

2006 – 2007: Experimental studies and archaeological research: building iron age houses in St. Georgen / Upper Austria

2006 – 2008: Experimental studies and archaeological research: building a middle bronze age fortification structure at the archaeological open-air museum in Montale/ Italy

2003 – 2009: Cooperation with an international working team under the leadership of the “Niedersächsische Institut für historische Küstenforschung” to develop a glossary for timber building in nine languages as a basis for future wood technology research.

2006 - 2008: Experimental studies and archaeological research: building an early middle age village in Unterrabnitz / Burgenland

2007 - 2008: Experimental studies and archaeological research: building a late celtic temple structure in the archaeological open-air museum in Asparn / Lower Austria

2009 - 2010: Experimental studies and archaeological research: building a late bronze age house structure in the archaeological open-air museum in Hitzacker / Germany

2012 - 2014: Experimental studies and archaeological research: redesign of the the archaeological open-air museum in Asparn / Lower Austria

2014: Experimental studies and archaeological research: reconstruction of a bronze age dugout in Keutschach, Carinthia

2015: Experimental studies and archaeological research: reconstruction of an early neolithic fountain in the archaeological open-air museum in Asparn / Lower Austria

2016: Experimental studies and archaeological research: reconstruction of an iron age blacksmith shop in the archaeological open-air museum in Asparn / Lower Austria

2016 – 2018: Experimental studies and archaeological research: reconstruction of an iron age hall house in the archaeological open-air park Mitterkirchen / Upper Austria

2017: Experimental studies and archaeological research: reconstruction of an iron age glass-working furnace in the museum MAMUZ (Asparn / Lower Austria)

2018-2019: Experimental studies and archaeological research: reconstruction of two iron age threshold beam houses in the archaeological open-air museum in Schwarzenbach / Lower Austria

2019-2020: Experimental studies and archaeological research: reconstruction of a roman imperial farm building as well as documentation and renovation of the existing house-models in the archaeological open-air museum in Elsarn / Lower Austria

From May 2020 up to now:

Employee of the Ludwig Boltzmann Institute for Archaeological Prospection and virtual Archaeology:

Archaeological excavations on prehistoric sites

Planning and development of future scientific projects by terms of Public Archaeology

Memberships in archaeological societies and organisations

- EXARC - International organisation for Open Air Museums, since 2003
At this international archeology organization, I served on the board for four years as vice chairman and helped organize the association and organize annual meetings.
- EXAR - Experimentelle Archäologie in Europa, since 1998
In this international archeology organization, I also served on the board for four years as deputy chairman and helped organize the association and organize annual meetings.
- ÖGUF - Österreichische Gesellschaft für Ur- und Frühgeschichte, since 1992
- BMÖ - Österreichische Gesellschaft für Mittelalterarchäologie, since 1993
- GFC - Gesellschaft der Freunde Carnuntums, since 2016
- GAB - Gesellschaft für Archäologie in Bayern e.V., since 2016

Since 2010 Member of Austrian UNESCO Commission for the Intangible Cultural Heritage

In January 2010, I was invited to become a permanent member of the Austrian UNESCO Commission for the Intangible Cultural Heritage, where we permanently decide on the admission of new applicants and further develop the criteria for new admissions as an advisory board in the National Agency, Universitätsstraße 5/4, 1010 Vienna.